Dear Parents/Guardians

The school was informed at 1:23pm today that a group of students who are regarded as not having "prior rights" will be refused permission to travel on the Eynesbury Bus Service as of tomorrow (Tuesday 7 February).

The school has organised, at short notice, a second bus to maintain a service for all students from Eynesbury to continue to attend school without interruption. The second bus will for tomorrow, will run on exactly the same time schedule as the Government service, but go directly to the school in the morning. This will mean that the second bus will arrive in the morning at the school early. The afternoon bus will leave the school slightly later but is scheduled to arrive at the predicted same time in Eynesbury as the Government service. I would ask that both parents and students are understanding that there may be some hiccups tomorrow as we are arranging something at such short notice.

The school will seek to see what can be done to reach a better outcome than that which has presently been presented to us as it sorts through this situation not of our making.

I will keep families informed of updates by letter, email and SMS.

Yours sincerely

Andrew A. Neal
Principal
