Deakin Environment Seminar

Presented by the faculty of science, engineering and built environment

Professor Trevor Day, Executive Dean, Faculty of Science, Engineering and Built Environment; Professor Chris Austin, Head of School of Life and Environmental Sciences; and Dr Kelly Miller, Environmental Science Course Director, invite Year 11 and 12 students, teachers and parents, to our upcoming seminar 'Living in a Tiny House: the benefits for society, environment and you!' with guest speaker Darren Hughes.

Australia's expert on Tiny Houses and founder of Tiny Houses Australia, Darren Hughes has built up a global community of over 41,000 followers on Facebook. In fact, Tiny Houses Australia has become the hub of all things 'Tiny' in this country. When he started the community nearly four years ago, there was almost no information about Tiny Houses in Australia. Since then, Darren has seen the interest in Tiny Houses explode with more and more Aussies making the decision to downsize, simplify their lives and build their own Tiny House.

Darren has been interviewed a number of times both here in Australia and internationally, has been featured several times in Tiny House magazine and was a featured speaker at the recent Melbourne and Sydney Home Shows and the National Sustainable Living Festival.

Deakin Explore

In 2016 Deakin University launched an excellent Web App called Explore Deakin. This resource allows students to kick-start their course and career exploration. Students can start with courses that lead to a career, or start with careers to find courses that lead to it. Students can filter courses and careers by what matters to them; each course and carer lists others that are similar thus allowing students to broaden their options, and students can save their favourite courses and careers to access later, and even share them by email, Facebook and even Twitter.

Bachelor of Medical Imaging at Deakin

Deakin University offers a 4-year Medical Imaging – otherwise known as Medical Diagnostic Radiography – at its Geelong Waurm Ponds Campus. The course provides students with the opportunity to develop the knowledge, skills and clinical expertise for them to practise as a registered diagnostic radiographer once accredited by AHPRA. The program

Students get to use the latest equipment, and learn basic x-ray techniques, before advancing to more complex medical imaging procedures such as general radiography, digital vascular imaging, mammography, computed tomography (CT), general ultrasound (U/S) and magnetic resonance imaging (MRI).

Students undertake substantial clinical practice in clinical centres, medical imaging clinics and hospitals, as well as at Deakin's own three-roomed, state-of-the-art medical imaging training unit. Clinical placements typically take place at facilities across rural and regional areas of south-west Victoria. Interstate placements may be available at the expense of the student.

Other areas of study include medical radiation science linked to principles of medical imaging, biological sciences, plus important ethical and legal aspects of health care that will inform and support your future clinical practice.

Swinburne's ELP is an assessed program for students who can demonstrate their applied knowledge and skill within a particular area. It recognises many of the activities secondary students are already involved in and encourages them to expand their knowledge.

Swinburne's ELP is made up of four categories that are designed to challenge a student's knowledge and skill within a chosen area.

Students must complete both core categories and choose one elective to be awarded credit:

- Research/Academic skills (core)
- Career Development skills (core)
- Creativity (elective)
- Community engagement (elective)

Each category has activity requirements that students must meet in order to demonstrate their skillset. They will also need to create links between these activities and the skills that are required for further study and employment.

On successful completion, students are awarded credit towards the Swinburne Emerging Leaders Program, which is for current Swinburne Students.

So, what are the benefits of participating in the ELP?

The ELP has many benefits for students and provides a valuable resource for use in applications for employment and further study.
