

Bacchus Marsh
Grammar

Allied Health Assistant

About the School

Bacchus Marsh Grammar is an independent, co-educational primary and secondary school. The School commenced in February 1988 and celebrates its 30th anniversary this year. It has grown from its modest beginnings of just three classrooms, to a school of more than 2,500 pupils from Preparatory to Year 12. The School is opening a new campus in Aintree in 2019 in the Woodlea estate.

The school is well known for its increasingly strong VCE results as it becomes a force in Melbourne's west. The school seeks to develop a culture of achievement, which encourages staff and students to strive toward their personal best.

About the Role

Bacchus Marsh Grammar is seeking to appoint a full time Allied Health Assistant to work in their Education Services Department.

Key Roles and Responsibilities

- To work as part of a multi-disciplinary team
- To work under direction of the Speech Pathologist and other members of the Education Services team
- To implement recommendations by Allied Health Specialists – such as Speech Pathologists and Occupational Therapists with individual and small groups of students
- To deliver specific programs designed by the Speech Pathologist
- To develop resources and keep session notes, attend meetings and liaise with other members of the school community

Key Selection Criteria

Qualifications/ Licenses

- Certificate IV: Allied Health Assistant
- A current Working with Children Check
- Australian citizenship or permanent residency
- Appropriate first aid qualifications (HLTAID003 or equivalent)
- A current Police Check

Demonstrated Experience and Skills

- Minimum 3 years' experience working in a similar role
- Experience working as part of a multi-disciplinary team
- Ability to work independently as well as under the direction of Allied Health Specialists
- Experience in working with people with diverse cultural and abilities background
- A preparedness to become involved in extra-curriculum activities within the School

How to Apply

Applications must be addressed to Wendy Green, Assistant Principal – Education Services and emailed to school@bmg.vic.edu.au. Applications must include a current resume and cover letter.

Applications Close Friday 31st August 2018