- 3.6.6 It is preferred that sports runners and laces should be any one of the School Colours or any combination of these colours.

4 Consequences of a Breach of this Policy

- 4.1.1 The School Uniform and Dress Code Regulation Policy is compulsory. The School emphasises the need to comply with the requirements of this policy.
- 4.1.2 Any student found to be in breach of the requirements of this policy may be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of enrolment. Students should refer to the Student Discipline Policy.

5 Request for an Exemption

The School recognises that there may be instances in which the application of the School Uniform and Dress Code may affect some students unequally. If grounds for an exemption apply, the affected student may apply to the Principal or (Deputy Principal) for an exemption as outlined below:

5.1 Grounds for an Exemption

- 5.1.1 Grounds for an exemption may exist when an aspect of the code:
- prevents a student from complying with a requirement of their religious, ethnic or cultural background
 - the student has a particular disability or health condition that requires a departure from the dress code
 - the student or the student's parents/guardians can demonstrate particular economic hardship that prevents them from complying with the dress code
- 5.1.2 Further grounds for exemption may be allowed at the Principal's discretion.

5.2 Exemption Process

- 5.2.1 The School will endeavour to follow the exemption process outlined in the table below to comply with its obligations under human rights and anti-discrimination legislation:

Stage	Description
1	Parents/guardians or students approach the Principal with a written request for an exemption and the grounds upon which an exemption may be available.
2	The Principal: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> considers the grounds for exemption explains the exemption process to the applicant guarantees that issues of a personal nature revealed to substantiate the request will be strictly confidential encourages the applicant to support their case with further evidence if required.
3	The Principal seeks to negotiate a resolution that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> is acceptable to all parties may include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a modification of the dress requirements rather than a complete exemption granting of pastoral care or welfare assistance (for example, when the exemption is sought for economic purposes) conditions under which the exemption is allowed.
4	The Principal: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> grants an exemption, or provides reasons when an exemption is not granted.
5	The Principal may keep a written record of the exemption request, all the decisions made and the reasons provided, which may be produced and or relied upon by the School in the event a decision is questioned.

6 Review

6.1.1 This policy will be reviewed every 3 to 5 years.

7 Communication of Policy
